107

With F.M.L.

He looked like a friend, though he wore two gun holsters and pointed sixguns at you. "Hands up," went the cry. "They're up, they're up!" came the reply. "Okay! Give me a glass of dirty water!"

107-107-107

So "quoth" Martin, perennial phrase maker and general artist of hats around our house.

Hatless he was at this departure. He had only finished a guitar rendition of a trip to the moon, a good distance for a 4-year-old.

"Here are the Singers," he announced, banging open the doors he had banged shut for the introduction.

Now Martin is but one, people that is, but he sings as a quartet. "I went to my Daddy to see if he'd take me to the moon," Martin sang. Strum. Strum. And "Daddy said no, so I went to my swing. And swung... clear up to the moon. Strum. Strum. ... and my Daddy went along."

Or something like that.

107-107-107

Seems Martin's favorite book is about a trip to the moon. And he had just seen a TV show about one of these R&R groups which had, by some mad scientist, piped their musical abilities into one "Frankenstein-type" monster who came out a hipster.

Martin saw. And a few hours later, Martin sang.

107 never quite recovers from such imagination. While Martin "rocks", his old man "rolls" at his antics. Prejudice, filial attachment and all that, that kid has something.

107-107-107

The nearest phrase to Martin's "dirty water" routine is one that Bob Hope pulled a few years ago in one of his nonsense Westerns.

Seems Hope, imitating a tough cowboy, walked up to a bar and asked for "a lemonade in a dirty glass."

No one knows how Martin would see the picture, which was before his time, or after it, if it has recently appeared on a "late, late show."

107-107-107

Analysis takes the fun out of Martin's, or any kid's shenanigans. And beside, if he reads this, which we think he can't, he'll turn it to an imaginative advantage, like a down payment on a rocket ship, or a set of eight tumblers for "dirty water", or laboratory equipment to turn the house cat into a bird.

Cameron Adopting All-Number Dialing

Cameron telephones will be converted to All Number Calling (ANC) October 1, 1967. At that time, telephone numbers will change from the present two letter-five digit system to an all-numeral numbering system. C. L. Carson, manager for Southwestern Bell, said.

The first three numbers for Cameron telephones will change from OX7 to 697. As an example, the telephone company number OX7-4601 will change to 697-4601. Carson pointed out that the letters OX7 and the numbers 697 occupy the same location on the dial.

Carson said the prefix change-over will be made when new directories are issued in October. He said advance notice was being given to assist people who plan to order stationery and other primed material on which telephone numbers are carried.

Shell Oil Company's Smackover wildcat in eastern Milam County, the No. 2 Adoue Estate, was drilling ahead again after crews spent some time coring the deep test two weeks ago. The wildcat was drilling at 13,205 feet on Monday. It made only 115 feet of hole during the weekend; it was drilling at 13,090 feet last Friday, according to depth figures released at that time.

Letter To County... Fires Pose Threat

SCHILLER HEADS COMMITTEE ON HOUSE EXPENSE

House Speaker Ben Barnes has again appointed Rep. Milton Schiller of Cameron as Chairman of the House Contingent Expense Committee. This will be his second term as head of this group.

Schiller, who is starting his third term as Representative for Falls, Milam and Robertson counties, was the only legislator from this area of the state to draw a chairmanship this term.

He also was appointed to a second term on the powerful 21-member House Committee on Revenue and Taxation, the Aeronautics Committee, Committee on Urban Affairs, and the Agriculture Committee.

Commenting on the appointments following opening of the 60th Legislature last week, Schiller said he was pleased with the confidence the Speaker had placed in him.

"This will give the people of District 27 a strong voice on very important legislation affecting their district and Texas as a whole," Schiller said.

In the last session of the Legislature Schiller served on the Contingent Expense, Revenue and Taxation, Agriculture, Livestock and Cattle, and the Rules Committees.

Repairs Completed As Alcoa Atomizer In Production Again

Production of aluminum powder at Rockdale Works atomizing facilities resumed this week, following completion of changes and repair of damages suffered in the October 16, 1966 explosion.

According to Works Manager H. F. Chrisco, production presently is at approximately 80 percent of capacity. Full capacity operation is expected early next week.

The atomizer unit underwent considerable design change compared with the original, particularly in the dust collecting system. Previously a bag-type collection system had been used. This has now been replaced by a cyclone cluster collection system. An investigating committee had found that the explosion, which injured no one, was triggered in the original dust collecting system.

The atomizing department was installed at Rockdale Works in 1966 after Alcoa contracted to produce aluminum powder for use by the U.S. Navy. Construction began in February, 1966, and first production was in July, 1966.

School Census To Register 6 Yr. Olds

Parents with children who will be 6 years old by September 1, 1967 are asked to come to Ben Milam school building to fill in and sign a census form.

Supt. D. R. Dodson said the census, which is necessary for planning the needs for the fall term, must be completed during January.

CISD Election Set By School Board

Cameron Independent School Board Thursday night called for an annual school board election Saturday, April 1, to elect three trustees.

Three-year terms of Board President C. R. Law, board secretary Forrest Sapp and board member Charles McDermott expire this spring.

Applicants who seek to run for the post must file with the board secretary by March 1, or 30 days prior to the election.

Other board members currently serving are Coleman Duncum, Calvin Cobb, Lane Horstmann and Barbee Barrett.

The Board employed Mrs. Patsy K. Waters to teach at O. J. Thomas School, succeeding Mrs. Thelma Madison who resigned.

Also approved were annual raises for Herman Juergens, head custodian, $500; and Mrs. Vondee Chandler, lunchroom supervisor, $180.

School lunches were increased effective February 1 for students from fourth to 12th grade to 35 cents, and for adults to 45 cents to offset the raises, Supt. D. R. Dodson told The Herald.

And the Board acknowledged the new wage and hour minimum wage schedule for auxiliary school personnel which begins at $1 per hour up to 44 hours and increases to a minimum of $1.65 in the next four years as the work week reduces to 40 hours.

The Board also contracted with Red-Dog Truck Co., of Strawn, Texas, for $1,700 worth of cinders (150 tons) to re-cover the Yoe Field track.

A plan submitted by Elementary Principal C. B. Jones was approved by the Board whereby students in upper junior high and high school will take special education courses in the Graham home, recently purchased by the school, younger students in Ben Milam

Chamber To Elect Six New Directors

Ballots for electing six new directors for the Cameron Chamber of Commerce have been mailed to the Chamber membership and new officers and directors will take office March 1.

Six directors will also be appointed to serve on the Board by the Executive Committee of the Chamber. Elected directors will serve a three year term.

Directors who will be retiring from the board are: Lane Horstmann, Monroe Fuchs and Frank Luecke. Elected directors who will be serving unexpired terms are: N. L. Caperton, Rev. Richard Freeman, Don G. Humble, Ed Laywell, Henry Siebman, John Henderson Jr., Gene Smitherman, Miss Mildred Thornton, Lavert McKinney, James Camp, R. W. Wells and Herman Hanel.

FIREMEN LOG 5 TIMES MORE OUTSIDE CITY

A committee of the City Council is drafting a letter to County Commissioners concerning the fire fighting dilemma facing Cameron Fire Dept.

In the regular Tuesday night meeting, Councilman R. W. Wells quoted figures from a log of mileage and time from Cameron Fire Dept. showing that city equipment spent three hours going 16 miles to city fires during January 1-16.

In the same 16-day period, Cameron Fire Dept. equipment has spent 14 hours travelling 125 miles to grass fires outside the city limits, about five times the effort in city calls.

A council committee of Lester Turner, Lawrence Zoltz and Wells has been studying the problem. Wells is drafting a letter for Mayor Basel Wilson's and the Council's review, stating the problem and the cost for County Commissioners' consideration.

Zoltz said he had learned that Lee County had recently placed rural fire fighting equipment in strategic parts of the county specifically for rural use. Coryell County, one fireman said, had followed a similar plan.

GRASS FIRES EXCLUDED

Wells said he had discussed the question with County Judge O. B. Harden and Commissioner Lavert McKinney and former Judge Don Humble. At present, the County reimburses any municipal fire department in the county only for a call to fight a fire on houses and other buildings, Wells said. Grass fires are not included.

City Atty. Charles Smith Jr. said there was a serious question whether local fire rates and insurance standards are being met with the heavy out-of-town service.

Councilmen are hoping to arrange a joint meeting with County Commissioners to review the entire problem.

In other business, Mayor Wilson reported that Central Texas Industrial District, a 12-county organization designed to attract industry into Central Texas, has set Milam County's pro-rata share for organization at $303.40 divided among County and Rockdale and Cameron city governments. Wilson is treasurer of the CTID organization.

The Council also approved a motion authorizing Mayor Wilson to contact Washington representatives in Congress and Senate about Cameron's urban renewal application.

A letter from Bernard Johnson, engineering firm representing Cameron in its urban renewal application and planning efforts, suggested Washington representation can assist in following the progress of the urban renewal application.

HIGHWAY MEETING

A meeting is being set up with State Highway officials to discuss right-of-way problems in Cameron and paving leaks in highway right-of-way through the city.

Replacement of some mains may be necessary to protect existing right-of-way, Wells said.

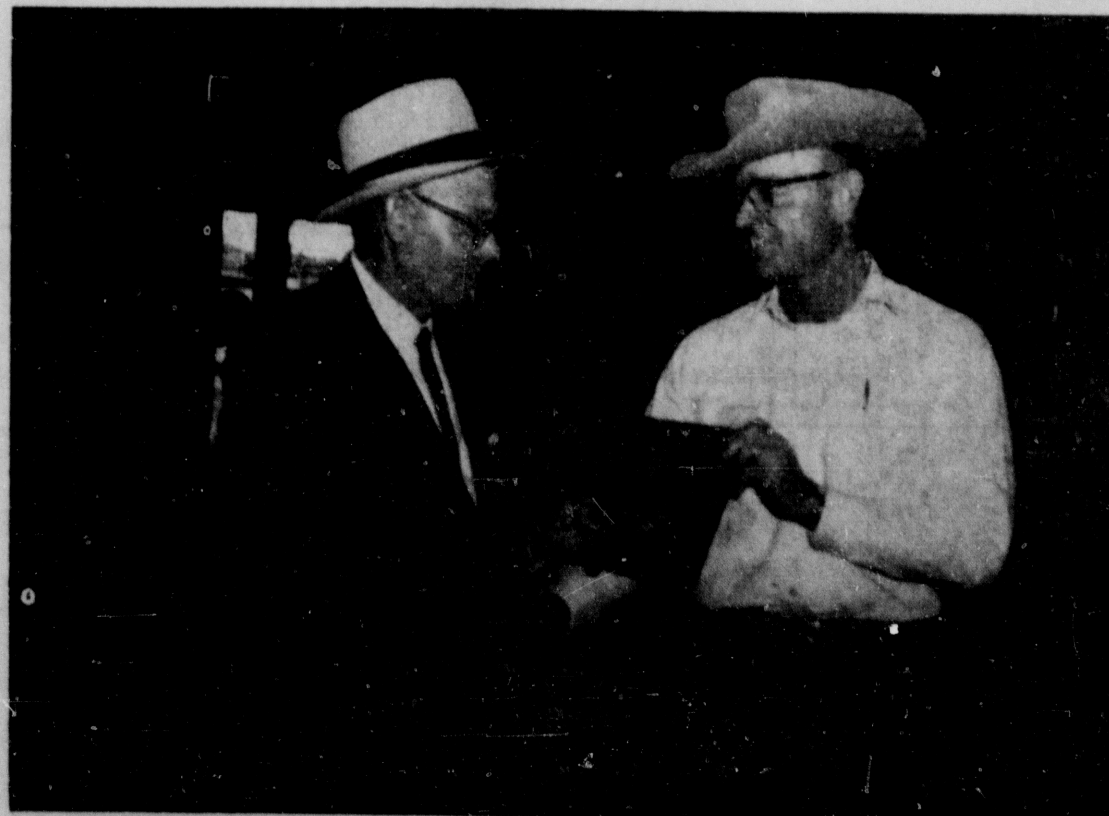

Mayor Wilson said a prospect for the patrolman vacancy had been suggested, a former deputy U.S. marshal not named. Wells urged that the vacancy be advertised locally before the position is filled.

The Mayor also said that another vacancy may occur in the police department due to the load now being carried by the present staff.

2 Youths Picked Up After Court Escape

Two youths ran from the Milam County courthouse after sentencing in Milam County Court Tuesday and were picked up by Sheriff's deputy Blackie Morgan Wednesday morning as they were walking along the highway towards Caldwell.

Sheriff Carl Black said one boy had been sentenced to a term in Gatesville and the other had been fined for stealing car batteries.

Preaching 11:00 a.m.

Today, the earth. Tomorrow, the moon. What next? Even twenty years ago we would have found it hard to accept the idea of man going out into space—landing on the moon—consorting with the stars—hurtling around the earth. What will things be like twenty years from now, and what will we accept then?

Living on the threshold of the space age, it is easy to be carried away by the stranger-than-fiction events that happen every day. Because of this, we need more than ever the steady force of the Church in our lives. No matter what happens, we may be sure that the Church will continue to endure as it has through the centuries. God's House will be with us in all its majesty, as will His word.

Even the astronauts themselves have shown again and again that the Church is a deep part of their lives. Be sure to make and keep it a part of yours.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mrs. Curry Reviews Brave New World For 3 Arts Club

Mrs. Bob Curry of Temple reviewed Aldous Huxley's "Brave New World" for Three Arts Club members Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. O. B. Harden was hostess for the meeting at her home and Mrs. James Kahler was co-hostess. Mrs. Curry treated the Brave New World with an unusual blend of humor and gravity that was both entertaining and thought-provoking. Her review provided a second look with new insight for many, at a book that has been required reading at most colleges for 25 years.

Mrs. Dana Monroe presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Niley Smith reported on plans for enhancing the art display at Ada Henderson School.

Following the meeting coffee and dessert were served in the dining room. New members, Mrs. Monroe Fuchs and Mrs. Daniel McDaniel, assisted at the refreshment table.

Mrs. Dusek Hosts UDC Jan. Meeting

The UDC met last week in the home of Mrs. Franklyn Dusek with 8 members and 5 guests attending.

Mrs. John Howard presented a paper on Oceanography with special emphasis on the contributions of Lee Jackson and M. Maury who recorded ocean charts and maps.

The hostess served a fruit plate, hot tea and coffee. She was assisted by Mrs. John Hayes.

Mrs. F. S. Lesovsky will be hostess for the February meeting. Each member will bring a family heirloom to display and discuss.

Red Cross Reminds: A Community That Cares Is One That Shares

By Mrs. Robert Elliott
Chairman, Red Cross
Donor Recruiters

"Help meet our quota for 1966-67" is the message being repeated by volunteer recruiters for the Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be at the Methodist Fellowship Hall from 1 to 7 p.m. Friday, January 27. Donor recruit workers are asking area residents to plan now to make a donation.

Requirements for donors are: Donors must be between 18 and 60 years of age.

Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds.

Donors must be in good general health.

A physician is always present at the Bloodmobile. Dr. C. G. Swift is the Medical Director for this program. Mrs. Jack Tomlinson is in charge of volunteers.

Young adults are especially encouraged to make donations this year. The only additional requirement for persons age 18-21 is the written permission of their parents or guardian, except for married girls or members of the Armed Forces. Dennis Rose, Yoe High School senior has already expressed his plans to make a donation this year in memory of Mr. William Love. Dennis will be 18 years old only one day prior to the visit of the Bloodmobile. Won't others in this age group please join Dennis in making a donation?

Among community residents receiving blood through the Red Cross Blood Program last year were: A 5 year old niece of Mrs. Morris Eplen, who was suffering from a blood disease, received 29 units of blood in a Dallas hospital and the late Mr. Frank Hanel, who received 11 units of blood in a local hospital and 8 units of blood in a Temple hospital. These are only two of the many who received blood through the Red Cross Blood Program last year. Please help replace blood given them and to you, your family, or your neighbor.

Your donation shows you care and are willing to assume your share of the responsibility for fulfilling the needs of your community. Be sure Cameron is a community that cares and shares.

There is an urgent need for Type AB blood. Due to an emergency in a local hospital last week, this rare blood type is in extremely short supply. Anyone having Type AB is urged to make a donation at this time. Donors having other rare types (O negative, B positive) are also requested to make donations as amounts collected are at times insufficient to meet demands.

Mutual Fire Problem....

Cameron has a fire service problem while one truck is undergoing major modification, and stress to answer rural calls is great.

In a Tuesday Council meeting, figures showing comparative time and mileage the first 16 days of January on calls outside city limits and those inside city limits were furnished by fire department personnel.

Cameron fire fighting equipment, not counting volunteers' time and vehicles, logged three hours and 16 miles within the city limits while logging 14 hours and 125 minutes outside the city limits to fight grassfires.

Mayor Wilson and city councilmen are concerned about the cost to the City without reimbursement from the rural property owner or county in tax support and the danger to city property while equipment and men are out of town.

The Council said they hoped to meet with County Commissioners to consider possibilities of meeting service needs and some type of reimbursement for city equipment being used in county fires. Other counties are providing special equipment to combat rural grass fires. Two mentioned were Lee and Coryell Counties.

It is a basic problem that city and county government should work for the mutual fire protection of city and county property owners.

Aluminum Industry Leader Looks For Continued Growth In 1967

PITTSBURGH, Pa.

The U.S. aluminum industry will continue in 1967 to grow at a faster rate than the national economy, and in the process will establish new production and shipment records for a sixth consecutive year.

So predicts John D. Harper, president and chief executive officer of Aluminum Company of America, the world's largest producer, in commenting on the 12-month outlook for Alcoa and the industry.

"Because of adjustments now underway in the general economy, we anticipate more moderate gains than those experienced this year," Mr. Harper said. "Nevertheless, 1967 should be another very good year for aluminum."

Mr. Harper noted that, while the 1966 combination of booming demand for aluminum and a higher level of prices for most fabricated products has enabled Alcoa and other producers to achieve all-time high earnings, return on capital investment remains inadequate.

"Our greatest challenge in the years immediately ahead," he said, "will be to earn enough to finance new plant and modernization programs vital to our continued growth."

Alcoa alone will invest $780 million in expansion and modernization for the years 1965 through 1968, while the industry as a whole must spend several times this amount. Mr. Harper said virtually all of the expenditures are designed to achieve more and better products and improved efficiency, so that aluminum can sustain and enhance its ability to compete with other materials and expand its markets.

Alcoa's top officer said that in contrast to the late 1950's when the government encouraged additions to primary capacity which led to an over-supply condition, current industry additions to basic facilities are in balance with foreseeable market demand.

"Also," he noted, "in percentage terms today's expansions represent a smaller portion of total primary capacity than was the case a decade ago, and the industry today has more exact planning techniques and much greater flexibility in adjusting to marketing prospects."

Alcoa's president said he anticipates some temporary shifting of aluminum's product mix during 1967 until the present tight money situation eases and relaxes its retarding effect on some major consumer markets for aluminum.

"We expect rising aluminum consumption by such expanding users as the electrical, packaging and defense industries to more than take up the slack, and that we will experience a new major surge in demand when home building and auto manufacturing return to their earlier levels," Mr. Harper said.

He added that his short- and long-range optimism concerning the outlook for Alcoa and the aluminum industry was prompted by the new vigor with which the metal's amazing versatility are being developed and exploited.

"Aluminum will continue its traditional outpacing of the general economy in 1967," Mr. Harper said, "because its growth is being stimulated by intensely competitive research and development programs, aggressive innovation in products and manufacturing methods, and imaginative and creative marketing."

Senate, House Clash On Rules

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex.

Texas House of Representatives is operating under far-reaching new rules. And a cooling-off period has been called in a controversy over whether both houses should revise joint procedures.

House of Representatives voted 145-0 for a modernized rulebook. Key changes reduce the number of House committees from 43 to 25, after this session; inaugurate a modified seniority system; and set up a calendar system to determine the priority rights of bills ready for consideration.

Three days deep in the 60th Legislative session the House also approved 145-0 a proposed set of joint rules to govern matters involving both houses. This included Speaker Ben Barnes' proposal to limit conference committees to adjusting differences in bills passed by the two houses, rather than writing new legislation.

Another major provision calls for joint committees to hear budget requests and perform some house-keeping functions.

Still another would require that conference committee meetings be open to the press and the public.

LI. Gov. Preston Smith turned a cold shoulder to the conference committee restriction, long advocated by Barnes. Smith said the Legislature has too many more important things to do than squabble over rules.

According to some House lieutenants, Barnes feels that a majority of the Senators favor his proposals. Smith pointed out that rules can be approved or amended only by a two-thirds vote.

So, the House version on joint rules is expected to spend an extended cooling-off period in a Senate committee.

If the House recommendations are not accepted, Barnes made it clear that he will regard his own conference committee appointees as duty bound to adjust differences only. If Senate conferees are not so restricted, he readily admitted an impasse may be reached when the first controversial piece of legislation goes to a conference committee.

LEGISLATIVE MEASURES

Major legislation now in the hopper includes:

A constitutional amendment by Rep. Travis Peeler of Corpus Christi to permit revision of the state constitution by sections, on submission by the Legislature.

Authority for cities to levy local option one-per-cent sales taxes by Rep. John Traeger of Seguin.

A minimum wage bill ($1.25 an hour) with Sen. Joe Bernal of San Antonio and Rep. Lauro Cruz of Houston as main sponsors.

Legalization of mixed drinks by

Rep. Jake Johnson of San Antonio. Abolishing the death penalty for crimes by Rep. Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi.

SENATE TERMS DECIDED

In a drawing to determine the length of terms of members of the Texas Senate, required by legislative reapportionment, these Senators will serve four-year terms:

Joe Bernal and V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio; Wayne Connally of Floresville; H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock; Chet Brooks and Criss Cole of Houston; Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells; Roy Harrington of Port Arthur; Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo; Jack Hightower of Vernon; Don Kennard of Fort Worth; Oscar Mauzy of Dallas; Dave Ratliff of Stamford; Jack Strong of Longview; Murray Watson of Waco; and J. P. Word of Meridian.

Those drawing two-year terms include:

A. M. Aikin of Paris; Jim Bates of Edinburg; Joe Christie of El Paso; Hank Grover (Republican) and Barbara Jordan of Houston; Ralph Hall of Rockwall; Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo; Charles Herring of Austin; Bill Moore of Bryan; George Parkhouse (who says he won't run again) and Jim Wade of Dallas; Bill Patman of Ganado; Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi; A. R. Schwartz of Galveston; and Charles Wilson of Diboll.

COMMITTEES NAMED

House veterans were selected by Speaker Barnes to head major standing committees.

Reps. Bill Heady of Paducah and Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville again will be chairman and vice-chairman of the budget-writing appropriations committee.

Reps. Ben Atwell of Dallas and Hudson Moyer of Amarillo will serve another term as chairman vice-chairman of the tax-drafting revenue and taxation committee.

Reps. R. H. (Dick) Cory of Victoria and Charles H. Jungmichel of La Grange are No. 1 and No. 2 on the workhorse state affairs committee.

Head of the powerful new House rules committee, which determines the order in which bills will be brought to the floor for consideration, is Rep. Randy Pendleton of Andrews. Vice-Chairman is Rep. Honore Ligarde of Laredo.

AMENDMENT VOIDED

Austin District Judge Herman Jones has held invalid the November 8 vote on a constitutional amendment to require annual voter registration.

Jones said the amendment's purpose was not properly described on the ballot which carried only the proposition to or not to "repeal the poll tax as a voting requirement." It was misleading, according to Judge Jones, because it

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Old Philosopher Says The President Or Anybody Has A Right Not To Like His Picture

Editor's note: The Old Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on the Yegua comes out stoutly in defense of the President of the United States on a particular issue this week.

Dear editor:

I'm not going into the politics of it, I've had about as many droughts and frozen water pipes under the Republicans as the Democrats, but I have decided to come out squarely in defense of the President of the United States on a certain matter.

According to a dozen or so articles I've seen in the newspapers the last couple of weeks, some historical outfit in Washington hired an artist to paint a picture of President Johnson, and when the picture was shown to him he blew his top. Said it looked awful. Wasn't him at all.

Now some people have questioned the President's artistic taste in this matter, in view of the fact the picture was painted by what is called a recognized artist.

I don't know what the President's artistic tastes are, doubt if he ran on that platform, and I know he wouldn't have to have much to beat me hands down and possibly a few others around here I could name, but that's beside the point.

Because, if there's one freedom that ought to endure in America, it's the freedom not to like a picture of yourself, to throw it in the waste basket if you want to without explaining to anybody.

What a person looks like to himself, after years of confrontation in a mirror, is altogether different from what he looks like to others, and especially to a camera or a painter.

A man's face may look like a delapidated barn, but it's what he's used to, and even a delapidated barn, if you've been away from it a long time on a long trip on unfamiliar ground, looks good when you return home.

My theory is that most people, after looking at their face for 40 or 50 years, are fairly well satisfied with it. Oh, they might make a minor change here or there, but on the whole they rather like it, they've concentrated on the good points so long and looked around the bad it's a shock to discover it may look to others like the north side of a craggy mountain.

If a man doesn't like a picture of himself, whether he's a busted farmer or the President of the United States, he's got an inalienable right to say so. There are some freedoms still left in this country.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

WASHINGTON D.C. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

I have a valuable Appaloosa stallion which I have learned recently likely is a descendant of the horse that Hitler used as a mount during his heyday. Naturally if these facts could be verified this would not only increase interest but make the horse more attractive to any potential buyer or breeder. Where could I find out whether or not Hitler did ride a registered horse and secure name, registration number and breed and sex of horse? Any light you can shed on this at all will be greatly appreciated.

M. D.
Fallon, Nevada

Dear Mrs. D.:

The Department has no information bearing on this subject. We suggest that your local horse association may be able to provide you with the name and address of a similar association in Germany qualified to answer your inquiry. On the chance that any horse ridden by Hitler was owned by the German Government, you may also wish to address an inquiry to the German Embassy, 4645 Reservoir Road, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20007.

I would appreciate it if you would send me a list of papers which the United States has issued on the Kashmir question, in connection with my doctoral thesis.

I am writing a magazine article on the loss of the French submarine SURCOUF, February 1942, off the Panama Canal. Was France ever reimbursed or credited for the loss of the SURCOUF, and if so, in what amount?

Cmdr. J. G. Jr.
Coco Solo, C.Z.

Dear Commander G.:

Evidently, there was never any financial settlement between the United States and France in connection with the loss of the SURCOUF. As you will note from the enclosed copies of documents, only circumstantial evidence pointed to sinking of the French vessel by the Thompson Lykes. In the absence of conclusive evidence, the United States apparently was not in a position to assume financial responsibility for the loss of the SURCOUF.

Do you have an inquiry? Send it to: "The Diplomatic Pouch" P.M.S. Room 4835, US Department of State Washington D.C. 20520 day by purchasing one Red Oak tree and sponsoring the planting of it and one presented by the husbands of the club members and one presented by Mrs. Foster, Foster's Flowers & Nursery, at the Cameron Public Library. Each tree is designated on the landscape plan for the library and will be planted as specified.

Mrs. J. A. Bowling presented the program for the day, "Landscaping the Small Garden. She emphasized the three main areas of concern - public, private and service. The needs of family as pertaining to the number of children and their needs, the plan for outdoor entertaining, etc., are of prime importance. She warned members not to overplant the grounds and to particularly consider the ultimate in growth of the plants used. She advised against planting "dirty" trees (those shedding leaves, blossoms, etc.) particularly in the public or patio area and she noted plantings for easy maintenance.

Mrs. Bowling said "plantings should enhance the home in the garden and not dominate by obscuring it eventually."

Peach Varieties For Top Profit

A group of 27 leading peach growers representing the major fruit areas of Texas were asked the following questions:

What four peach varieties have made you the most money? What four peach varieties would you plant in a new orchard?

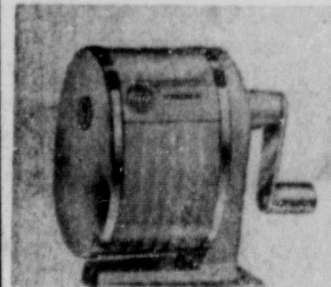

Ranger was listed by 13 growers as one of the top four money-makers in their orchards. Only 16 of the 27 growers were in areas where the rather high-cold requiring Ranger can be grown satisfactorily. Redskin and Loring, both low chilling varieties that can be grown in all of the fruit areas of Texas, were placed in the top money-makers by 12 growers. Redglobe and Cardinal were listed next as most profitable varieties.

The list of varieties growers would plant today was headed by Loring and Redskin, with 17 growers giving them the nod. Ranger had a strong rating of 14, with only four growers in the Ranger growing region omitting this popular peach. Redglobe with 12 growers' support was the fourth variety on the list. The low chilling variety Keystone showed popularity in the southern section of Texas.

NEW PEACH VARIETY

The Sam Houston Peach is a new variety that is recommended for this area. This variety is a yellow-fleshed freestone which colors at least two weeks before harvest. The fruit remains extremely firm all through harvest making it an excellent shipper. The fine textured yellow flesh has a mild taste, and although it has less acid than most commercial varieties with high cold requirements, it is far superior in quality to most other peaches with a low cold requirement. Ripening date at College Station is June 23.

Gov't. Asks Bids On Proposed Rosebud Bldg.

The Post Office Department is seeking competitive bids to build and lease the new post office building at Rosebud. Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien recently announced.

The purpose of competitive bidding, Mr. O'Brien said, is to encourage the most attractive and economical offer to the Government in line with President Johnson's economy program to achieve the best possible postal service at the least cost.

Under the Department's Lease Construction Program, the site selected at the corner of Avenue D and Fifth Street will be assigned to the successful bidder, who will purchase the property, construct the building according to departmental specifications and lease it to the Post Office Department for a basic period of 10 years, with options to renew the lease for an additional 20 years.

The Department's capital investment will be limited substantially to postal equipment. The buildings will remain under private ownership with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Bidding documents will be available about January 20, and may be obtained from Henry E. Lehman, Real Estate Officer, P. O. Box 167, Houston, Texas 77001. Mr. Lehman will supply bidding forms, building specifications, lease provisions and other information.

New Guide Available On Historical Markers

AUSTIN — The new 1967 Guide to Official Texas Historical Markers compiled by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee is now available for distribution. TSHSC President Charles Woodburn of Amarillo said today.

The guide was published by Humble Oil & Refining Company of Houston. Individuals or organizations may write Humble Touring Service (P.O. Box 2180, Houston, 77001) to request copies.

Reflecting the recent emphasis of the official marking of Texas heritage, the third edition of the guide lists 3,946 Official Texas Historical Markers. The guide it replaced listed 2,200 markers.

Five types of historical markers are listed in the guide: 1936 Centennial markers and Texas War for Independence markers; 1936 Centennial and Texas War for Independence grave markers; Confederate information and grave markers; historical building medallions and aluminum official markers; and private state-approved markers.

"The Official Texas Historical Marker program is Texas' way of bringing to tourists and Texans the rich heritage of the Lone Star State," said Woodburn.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Document Detectives

After a wealthy widow died, several checks turned up with what appeared to be her signature. Even though she had been blind for the final 20 years of her life, she had been able to write her name. And the signatures on the checks had the wobbly, halting character of her handwriting.

Yet there was something peculiar about the signatures. Invariably, the dots over the i's were placed squarely above the letter. How could a blind person, having come to the end of a word, go back and find exactly the right place to put the dot?

This telltale clue led to the discovery that the signatures on the checks were forgeries. The forger had been clever, but not clever enough to fool an expert.

More and more, the law is relying on a new breed of specialists known as "examiners of questioned documents" to detect forgeries. Using modern scientific apparatus, these document detectives deal not only with the curlicues of penmanship but also with the chemistry of ink and the composition of paper.

As for handwriting itself, they have succeeded in identifying hundreds of characteristics that make one person's penmanship different from another's.

How persuasive is this kind of evidence in the courtroom? Generally speaking, of course, a comparison of handwriting is not as precise as a comparison of fingerprints. Often, too, there is simply not enough of the questioned writing or of reliable samples for comparison) to justify a firm conclusion.

Nevertheless, when the document examiner has enough material to work with, his findings may play a decisive role in proving that two writings, seemingly alike, are different.

He may even perform the more difficult feat of showing that two writings, seemingly different, are alike. Thus:

In a "poison pen" case, the accused author denied that he had written the letters in question. To be sure, the handwriting in the letters seemed to the untrained eye to be totally different from the customary handwriting of the defendant.

Yet, document detectives were able to reveal so many subtle similarities that they tilted the scales against the defendant.

As one judge put it:

"Handwriting is always in some degree the reflex of the nervous organization of the writer, which unconsciously causes him to stamp his individuality in his writing." A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

Over 65's Given Income Exemption On Federal Taxes

AUSTIN

All citizens or residents of the United States, including minor children, who had gross incomes of $600 or more in 1966, must file a Federal income tax return, R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue Service in Austin announced today.

If the taxpayer is 65 years old on or before December 31, 1966, he is not required to file unless his gross income for 1966 was at least $1,200.

Phinney added that even though a taxpayer is not required to file under these rules, he must file to obtain a refund, if any income tax was withheld from his pay.

He said there is one exception to the general rule. Self-employed persons such as sole proprietors, partners, and independent contractors, must file an income tax return and pay a self-employment tax, if net earnings from self-employment were $400 or more.

IRS Questions

Q - Who has to file a return?

A - A return must be filed by every person under 65 who has gross income of $600 or more during the year. For those 65 or over, a return does not have to be filed until gross income reaches $1,200. However, if you are self-employed, you must file a return if you had self-employment income of $400 or more, even though your gross income was less than $600.

The filing requirements also apply to minors. If, for example, a child has income of $600 or more from a savings or trust account or any other sources, then a return must be filed on behalf of that child.

Q - I'm due for a refund this year. What can I do to speed it up?

A - The best advice we can give is to file a complete and accurate return and to mail it early. Taxpayers living in the Austin District who have a REFUND due should mail their tax returns in the special envelope provided, or address them to: Internal Revenue Service Center, Southwest Region, Austin, Texas 78740.

The largest single reason for delays in refunds last year was a missing or inaccurate Social Security number. Be sure to enter an accurate number for yourself and for your wife if it is a joint return. Other reasons for refund delays are failure to attach required W-2 forms, failure to sign the return and omission of other forms or schedules that may be required.

Q - Are auto license tags a deductible expense?

A - They are not in Texas as the fee is based strictly on weight. License plates are deductible only where the license fee is based on the value of the car. In that case, the expense would be considered a personal property tax and would be deductible.

Q - I do not have a Social Security number. Now I find I need one for my tax return. What should I do?

A - You may obtain a Social Security number, which also serves as a tax account number, by filing application form SS-5 with the local office of the Social Security Administration. This application is available at IRS offices, Social Security offices, and at many post offices.

Q - How much can a child earn and still be claimed as a dependent?

A - Generally, a person may not be claimed as a dependent if he has gross income of $600 or more. However, if your child is under 19 or is a full-time student, you may claim him as a dependent regardless of the amount of income he may have as long as you provide more than 1/2 of his total support for the year.

Q - I have a disability pension from Social Security. Is this taxable income?

A - No. Social Security benefits are not taxable.

Ben Franklin Stores Set 52 Week Event

Porter Young announced today that his store will join the more than 2,400 Ben Franklin Stores across the United States in staging a year-long celebration during 1967 commemorating the 90th anniversary of the founders of Ben Franklin stores.

Highlighting the 90th birthday event will be the promotion of 52 key values, one to be featured each week throughout the year at a very low price. Announcement of these special values will be made in The Cameron Herald throughout the coming year.

Young also announced that the local Ben Franklin store is participating in a 90th anniversary nationwide sweepstakes being sponsored by all Ben Franklin stores. Nine "Pick-Your-Trip" prizes will be awarded to nine lucky couples. First prize will be a two-week, all expense trip for two to anywhere in the world, plus eight second prizes of all-expense trips for two to anywhere in the Continental United States.

Winners will be announced in November.

"The merchandise division of our Ben Franklin headquarters has come up with some outstanding merchandise values to be offered each week during 1967," Young said, "and these weekly low-priced values are our way of thanking our customers for past patronage."
